Frequently Asked Questions

HOW STRONG DO I NEED TO BE TO COME TO CIRCUS CAMP?

The quick answer: Nope, no previous experience or superhuman strength required to try things like aerial silks! Our camp coaches know that most first-time campers haven't lifted, pushed, or pulled their own body weight before—and that's totally fine! We'll start with the basics to get you comfortable with all the fun, while more experienced campers will level up with skills suited to them.

I'M REALLY EXCITED FOR MY FIRST DAY OF CAMP! WHAT SHOULD I DO TO PREPARE?

You don't have to do anything extra! Circus Camp is all about fun and recreation—we're not trying to turn you into a Cirque du Soleil star in just one week (though, wouldn't that be awesome?!)

I'M AFRAID OF HEIGHTS, BUT I REALLY WANT TO TRY AERIALS! HELP!

No worries! Every aerial instructor starts you off from the ground, teaching you all the wraps and techniques for each skill. As you progress, they'll guide you to try those tricks from a climb—when you're ready, of course! And don't worry, safety is always our top priority (after all, more than a few other aerialists are a little scared of heights too!)

I'M WORRIED THAT I'LL BE TERRIBLE.

A few things to keep in mind when you come to Circus Camp (and when things get tough!):

First off, circus arts are HARD. You might watch a skilled performer and think, "Wow, they make it look so easy!"—that's their job. But for you, the camper, it can feel like a challenge. And that's totally normal! If circus were easy, it wouldn't be nearly as cool.

Second, circus isn't a race—it's all about progress at your own pace. Everyone has different strengths and learns in their own time. If you're feeling stuck, don't stress—just ask your instructor if you can move on and come back to it later. And most importantly, Circus Camp is about YOU. Whether you're here to have fun, get stronger, or learn new skills—remember, it's all about hitting your own goals. You've got this!

MORE FAQ's

WHAT SHOULD I WEAR / BRING TO CAMP?

Time to get dressed for circus fun! You'll want leggings that go all the way to your ankles and a leotard or shirt that you can tuck in (no belts, please!). Skip the jewelry, especially big earrings, as they can get caught or rip the fabric. Small earrings are A-OK!

Go barefoot—no shoes or socks here! Bring a water bottle (and definitely use it to stay hydrated). You'll also need two snacks and a sack lunch—just make sure it's nut-free! For the snacks, try a protein-carb combo like fruit and cheese or beef sticks with crackers to keep your energy and focus up all day long!

I JUST FINISHED MY FIRST DAY OF CIRCUS CAMP AND I AM EXHAUSTED!

After your first full day of Circus Camp, you might feel like you've been run over by a truck—that's totally normal! We always get a good laugh from parents who tell us, "Wow, they slept like a rock!" The first day is a big physical workout, and that soreness is just your body reacting to all the new movement.

Don't worry though! Drink plenty of water, have a healthy dinner with lots of protein to help your muscles recover, and treat yourself to a relaxing bath. If needed, you can take an anti-inflammatory like Tylenol or Advil to ease any discomfort.

We promise, you'll feel back to your awesome self in no time!

I JUST FINISHED MY FIRST DAY OF CIRCUS CAMP AND I'M EXCITED! WHAT SHOULD I DO BETWEEN NOW AND TOMORROW?

Haha, REST! You've worked hard today, so give those tired muscles a break. You can practice some of the stretches you learned at camp, but the key is to rest up! Once camp wraps up, if you want to keep up with your circus training and sign up for classes, we'll send you some "Home Habit" exercises and stretches to keep the momentum going. But for tonight—just chill and enjoy some well-deserved downtime!

I JUST TRIED SILKS / LYRA / TRAPEZE AND I REALLY WANT THEM AT MY HOUSE!

Aerials are amazing, but they can be risky if trained improperly.. For that reason, back up a few steps and come take regular circus classes before you do anything else.
